SWEAT DROPS BIG AS WALNUTS

President Roosevelt Demonstrated That He Could Handle The Pitch Fork In The Field As Skillfully As He Can The Big Stick In Congress.

NEW YORK, July 11.—President Roosevelt yesterday gathered his hay crop on his Sagamore Hill farm. Edward Maloney of East Norwich, L. I., who worked at the task told the story last night in the village store in his home town.

"Talk about hay pitchers—he's a wonder. After we got two wagons loaded, I drove to the barn with 'Teddy' in the lead, fork on shoulder and when we reached the new hay barn the President climbed on my load and then up into the mow, where he took the hay from the fork and stowed it away with more big drops falling from him in streams."

Wholesale Price List as Reported Daily.

PORTLAND, July 11.—One of the leading front street commission dealers said this morning, concerning the egg market: "There is absolutely no demand for eggs at prices that are being quoted in some quarters. In Choosing Your Piano Dealer you would, if careful, ask the following questions and demand satisfactory answers to each one before paying out money. "Ask them all of Eilers Piano House." Reading this advertisement, calling at our nearest store to see our instruments, and thinking the matter over

WILL MAKE YOU AN EILERS CUSTOMER

- (1) What kind of piano do they sell? Would you ask for a finer piano than a Weber, Kimball, Chickering, Haddarf, Lester, Hazleton, etc., or would you think of putting less into a piano than you can get (of us) a durable good Baily, Clarendon, Marshall & Wendell, Doll Foster, Whiting, Hinze or Weser for? (2) Are they high priced with their pianos? Do you suppose that, with four thousand pianos due to arrive, at our thirty stores from forty different factories, by the end of this year, we can afford to hold out for even usual prices? No. We have to sell 'em at low prices to do it on time. You are safe on price here. (3) If I don't pay cash how will I be treated? The fact that most of our sales are made on the "part-down-and-rest-later" basis proves it is popular and economical, and our rapidly growing trade proves that we do it on a fair and just plan. Our sales now total to a volume four times that of our nearest competitor, which enables us to do a little more on terms (along with our lower prices) than can be done elsewhere.

Decide on Eilers Piano House

An attractive display of samples of their most prominent makes will be kept on hand all summer at their Astoria branch, 424 Commercial street. Investigate now, even if you don't intend to buy till later.
